AFRICA CHINA CULTURE AND ARTS EXCHANGE SOCIETY

Membership Application Form

About the Society

The Africa China Culture and Arts Exchange Society (ACCAES) is a culture, arts, education and media exchange society. It was founded on the firm belief that not only can cultural exchange offer livelihood opportunities to artists of various genres; it can also weed out misunderstanding often brought about by cultural differences between bilateral partners.

The society was founded in Botswana in May 2018 and has a footprint in South Africa, Zambia, Nigeria, Tanzania and Angola. A preparatory committee was launched to build interim structures in a number of African countries in order to facilitate execution of the society's objectives which are:

1. To promote inter cultural activities between African and Chinese artists
2. To share knowledge, experiences and best practices on matters of culture, arts, education and media development
3. To facilitate access to international creative markets by African artists
